SEVERAL "SWIFTS."

A Short Talk on Fast Compositors by One Who Has Seen Them.

How Nine "Swifts" Demoralized an Old Evansville Foreman.

The article which appeared in the News of Saturday morning concerning the great amount of type set in the office on Wednesday night has been the cause of considerable comment among the typographers of the city. Each all conceded that the setting of 214,200 ems in nine hours by nineteen compositors, and that, too, on solid minion, is something far above the average; and also taking into consideration the fact that it is very sel-dom where a small force is run, that

"Speaking of fast type-setters," said a printer who had worked in all the large country, to a News reporter last evening, "reminds me of the early summer of the train out. 82. I was holding cases on the Indianon big nights. The foreman of the office was Harry Williams, a good printer, but greatly addicted to morphine and red liquor. To such an extent did he use these poisons that about half the time he was crazy as a Missouri bedbug. One day I met George Ahrensburg, who is the fastest and cleanest type slinger in the world. He told me that he had a 'gang' with him and that they all wanted to PUT IN A NIGHT.

In the Indianapolis Sentinel office on the night of November 21, last year, I was working at a case when John Long 'got up' 14,800 ems, solid minion, from the hook, in 7 hours and 25 minutes. He makes Ahrensburg move to keep out of his way. His record for that week, seven streight nights, stands at the top, beng the biggest on record. George Mc-Millan is probably the cleanest 'comp' of the outfit. I worked beside him seven nights on the Courier-Journal and he didn't catch a 'galley.' Gladson, at Markham, Fauquier county, Va., the former a des-cendant of Cnief Justice Marshall, and of Dr. Stribling, so eminent for his treatment of the insane. Two remarkable coincidences have been published in connection with the killing of young Stribling, viz:

Dr. Walter Bruce, his brother-in-law. native of Virginia, now resident at Micanopy, Fla., late on Friday night, December 28, awoke from a sound sleep, feeling that there was some mysterious presence in his room, and got up and lighted a lamp. Finding no one, he re-turned to bed and fell into a light sleep, and had a dream or vision of his wife' brother, R. M. Stribling, in a deadly conflict, in which he had his throat cut in a horrible manner, and was removed to a store near by, placed on a counter, and after a lapse of time died from the effects of the wound. Dr. Bruce, though far from believing in "isms," such as spiritualism, visited a medium in the COLLECTIONS PROMPTLY MADE town, who told him that some awful calamity had befallen young Stribling The vision and its effect on the mind of Dr. Bruce prevented him from sleeping. Sure enough, the next mail from Virginia announced the death of his FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER brother-in-law in the exact manner and at the very hour he had appeared to him.

OMAHA

The remarkable growth of Omaha during the last few years is a matter of great astonishment to those who pay an occasional visit to this growing city. The development of the Stock Yards—the necessity of the Belt Line Road—the finely paved streets—the hundreds of new residences and costly business blocks, with the population of our city more than doubled in the last five years. All this is a great surprise to visitors and is the admiration of our citizens. This rapid growth, the business activity, and the many substantial improvements made a lively demand for Omaha real estate, and every investor has made a handsome profit. Since the Wall Street panic last May, with the subsequent cry of hard times, there has been less demand from speculators, but a fair demand from investors seeking homes. This latter class are taking advantage of low prices in building material and are securing their homes at much less cost than will be possible a year hence. Speculators, too can buy real estate cheaper now and ought to take advant present prices for futur profi s

Th few years promises greater ove pments in Omaha than the past it years, which have been as good as we could reasonably desire. New manufacturing establishments and large job bing houses are added almost weekly, and all add to the prosperity of Omaha.

There are many in Omaha and throughout the State, who have their money in the banks drawing a nominal rate of nterest, which, if judiciously invested in Omaha real estate, would bring them much greater returns. We have many bargains which we are confident will
